

Compulsory Basic Training (CBT) Application Form 2019

Tel: 747431

Website: www.jerseyschoolofmotorcycling.co.uk

CBT is required in Jersey before any provisional motorcycle licence holder can take to the road.

The course comprises of the following five elements at a cost of £127.00 and is offered at weekends only.

Introduction instruction of the training course and the importance of having the right equipment.

Practical on-site training covers the motorcycle, how it works, its controls and basic machine checks.

Practical on-site riding instructs how to handle, ride and fully control the machine in various simulated situations.

Practical on-road training a comprehensive discussion about riding safely covering legal requirements, rules of the road, and the need to ride defensively. There will be a multiple choice theory test before going on the road. Failure to pass this will mean not going on road. A further fee will be charged to retake the on road section the following week.

Practical on-road riding candidates will be required to put into practice the skills that they have learned during the four previous elements. Candidates are kept in contact with an instructor via radio headsets.

Once all five elements have been successfully completed, the candidate will receive a CBT certificate that validates their provisional licence.

CBT candidates must have a roadworthy motorcycle, a provisional motorcycle licence for the relevant group required and insurance cover. Suitable clothing to include an approved motorcycle helmet, motorcycle gloves, a protective jacket, hardwearing trousers and appropriate footwear with ankle protection. Candidates must study The Jersey and UK Highway codes, The Official DSA Guide to Riding - the essential skills and their motorcycle owner's manual before attending the course.
