

PUBLIC ELECTIONS (JERSEY) LAW 2002

General information for candidates for election and for proposers and seconders of candidates for election as Senator, Connétable or Deputy.

1. Qualification and disqualification for election to office are set out in:
 - a. the States of Jersey Law 2005 – for election as Senator or Deputy, or
 - b. the Connétables (Jersey) Law 2008 – for election as Connétable.
2. Nomination Document and Political Party Declaration must be completed by a candidate for election to the office of Senator, Connétable or Deputy.

4. Office of Connétable - candidates for election should be aware that the Royal Court may refuse to swear a person to office if not satisfied that he or she is a fit and proper person to hold that office. Candidates may be asked to complete a basic criminal records check.
5. Candidate in one election only - the Public Elections (Jersey) Law 2002 provides that where 2 or more elections for one or more Senators, Deputies or Connétables are held on the same day, a person cannot be admitted as a candidate in more than one of those elections. Accordingly if a person is admitted as a candidate in an election and is subsequently admitted as a candidate in another of those elections then the earlier admission as a candidate shall lapse.

7. Proposer and seconders of a candidate must all be entitled under the Public Elections (Jersey) Law 2002 to vote for the candidate they nominate in any poll held for the election. A person using the 'advance registration' option may only propose or second a candidate on or after the date he or she satisfies the criteria as an elector.
8. Persons entitled to vote in an election are those names on the electoral register, or on the supplementary register for the electoral district. An elector who has registered in advance of meeting the eligibility criteria may not vote prior to the date on which he or she meets the criteria.

ELECTION EXPENSES – the Public Elections (Expenditure and Donations) (Jersey) Law 2014 limits the amount that candidates can spend when standing for election to the States as a Senator, Connétable or Deputy. A candidate must deliver to the Judicial Greffier no later than 15 working days after the day the poll is held a written declaration of expenses and donations. The Law may be viewed on the Jersey Legal Information Board website www.jerseylaw.je and an explanatory leaflet is available from the States Greffe (Tel: 441020).
