

LOCKED DOWN LIBERATION

A Parish Party with a Difference

WE'RE GOING THROUGH TOUGH TIMES!
WE WILL NOT LET LIBERATION 75 SLIP AWAY

How about getting out in your (front) garden, yard or balcony on Saturday 9th May at 3pm
Prepare your own food, drinks, decorate your garden if you wish and celebrate with your neighbours.
This would be a heart warming community event.
We hope to wave from a distance and see you there.

Please note, we must strictly adhere to the social distancing rules in place at this time. We MUST NOT venture into each others gardens. The idea is that we can celebrate together but from the safety of our own properties. If you are chatting with neighbours over the wall please remember :

YOU ARE STILL REQUIRED TO SOCIAL DISTANCE FROM EACH OTHER

STAY SAFE

By kind permission of the Connétable.
* See over for details

JOIN IN THE FUN AND DECORATE YOUR GARDEN, YARD OR BALCONY

(Open to all Parishioners)

To have a chance to win the £100 prize simply decorate your garden, yard or balcony in a theme celebrating the 75th anniversary of the Liberation.

There is also one prize of £50 for the best Liberation 75 fancy dress in EACH the following categories:

Children – (0 – 12) Teenagers – (13-19) Adults – (20 plus)

Take a good quality photo of your entry for either of the categories and email it to stmartin@posmn.gov.je by 16th May 2020.

Prizes kindly donated by the Parish of St Martin

Terms and conditions: Entries must be submitted by 16th May 2020. Only one winner per category will be selected. No correspondence will be entered into. The winners will be notified by email reply. The winning entry will be published in the Parish magazine.

This year Liberation will not be the event we had all hoped and planned for, however I look forward to celebrating with you all at our Lockdown Parish Party. Please maintain social distance, keep safe and stay well.

Karen Shenton-Stone, Connétable
