3 The Connetable advised the assembly that a public meeting is to be held over three days at the beginning of March regarding the First Time Buyer scheme. No venue has been confirmed yet as unsure if the Parish Hall would be a suitable venue as the developments has Parish connections. Mr Terence Avery stated that he thought the Parish Hall was a suitable venue and that anyone interested would know where to attend, the Connetable acknowledged this comment.

As there was no further business the Constable thanked everyone for attending.
